

About Carney Plumbing, Heating and Cooling:

Carney is residential and commercial services provider, specializing in plumbing, heating, air conditioning, as well as Geothermal, whole home generators, water treatment and indoor air quality.

Founded in 1976 by Kevin J. Carney. Centrally located in Hatfield, Pennsylvania and employs approximately 38 individuals. The core of the Company's success over the years has been the Individuals and community that comprise it. Team Work, dedication to our customers and a close-knit culture have enabled the Company to grow and thrive through the years.

Due to continued rapid growth, we are looking to add a self-motivated individual to our team who has the capability to maintain, service and repair domestic plumbing systems.

About the Opportunity:

Maintain, service and repair domestic plumbing systems in commercial and residential settings.

Maintain and promote the use of water purification and softening products to customers.

Promote the necessity of annual plumbing maintenance agreements.

Assist in the training and development of current apprentices.

Qualification:

Candidate should have experience in a service technician role.

Candidate should possess a general understanding of domestic plumbing systems.

Candidate should be friendly, outgoing, drug free, punctual, have willingness to learn, possess a valid driver's license, maintain a neat appearance and have a clean criminal record.

What we Offer:

Competitive Salary

Monthly Bonus Pay

Healthcare Coverage

AFLAC Insurance Coverage

Company Match Retirement Savings Plan

Vacation and Sick Pay

Paid Training

Opportunity for Advancement

Job Type: Full-Time